ANTHONY'S ADVENTURES

Go ahead! Say it! I'm too young to be writing a column. But I'm not. And I'll prove it by writing this one right now. Of course my daddy does the typing for me, but I really do the writing.

First a fall I've got to tell you about the thousandth Pizza mommy and daddy sold, 'cause we told you in an ad in the Press how we were going to give five dollars in merchandise to the person who bought it. Well, they did, and we did, and there you are, and here I am. Mrs. Robert Smith, who works over at city hall was the lucky winner. She and her daughter, Lesley, bought the pie that won. After that they were on a steady Pizza diet for about a week. And I've gotten to know Lesley pretty well — (what a cute chick). She's a little old for me but I'm growing all the time.

Mommy and daddy and me want to thank the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, Grace and Jim Osborne, Bertha and Tommy McNeil and "Moon" and Lulu Mullins for the beautiful plants and flowers they sent for our opening.

See, I'm not too young to write a column. At least I don't think so. And say, I wish you'd drop me a letter and say hello if you get the chance. Just write to Anthony, c/o Torrance Press. My daddy's getting tough right now — he says I have to say something commercial. So because he's bigger than me I will: Have a Pizza!
